

Perspective New Students and Parents,

I am really excited you have decided to look into what we have to offer at Dancin' With Roxie. Whether you have danced before or this is your first experience we hope to make this a great experience for you. We offer fun, energetic dance classes to all ages and abilities

DWR is a premiere studio for dancers of all ages, abilities, body types, or experience levels, who possess one common ingredient: a love for dance.

If you take dance seriously, this is the studio for you. DWR creates a challenging atmosphere, but keeps the fun and creativity in the curriculum, too. So, it doesn't matter if you have never danced before, just want to brush up on some moves, want a fun workout, or want to dance professionally, we customize our program to meet your needs.

You're never too young, nor too old, to dance!

From beginners to experts, DWR has the experience and expertise to get your moves up to par. We'll take it as far as you want to take it. Whether your budget is modest or significant, we'll make sure your training and experience with us will build skills and talents that last for a lifetime. Our Competition Team is the only one in Northern Iowa, and we are going places! One of our recent graduates is currently pursuing a professional dance career at University of Arizona which is known as the best dance school in the nation. At our most recent competitions, all of our dancers walked away with superior ratings.

So, if you want to dance, let's dance!

We are proud of the reputation we have built over the last four years, and we will continue to build on that with our excellent instructors. Give us a call at 641-430-5003 so we can answer any questions you have. Office hours are from 1:00pm to 3:00pm. If you call during other times, we'll be out on the dance floor and unable to speak with you, but we will call you back!

Choosing a Dance Studio can be a hard choice to make. Choosing the right dance studio that best fits your child can be an even harder choice. Not all dance studios are created equal. At Dancin' With Roxie we teach a lot about dance and a lot about life along the Journey. All of the instructors and dancers at Dancin' With Roxie hope that you can take the journey with us!

Cj is currently living in Rockwell with her boyfriend Erik and is excited to share her knowledge, experiences, and her passion for dance with the students at Dancin' with Roxie.

COMPETITION TEAM

The DWR Competition Teams have won top awards in Ames, Des Moines, and Minneapolis. Competition Team is open to any DWR student. It is recommended the dancer participate in at least 2-3 years of combination classes before becoming part of the competition team. The Competition Team is showcased at the recital. DWR Competition Team travels to two competitions per year and an optional 3rd for all soloists. The commitment of both the dancers and the parents is above and beyond those of the regular classes. Parents and student must be practicing more at home, traveling, taking care of preparing costumes, fundraising and much, much more. This program is not designed for everyone but for a select few who are willing to make the dedication to it. The cost of the Competition Team is significantly more than a regular class as well.

Tiny Tots Competition Team * NEW*

These dancers meet once a week for an hour and a half only November-the Date of the Last Competition and compete with 1 dance at competition. This is for dancers Kindergarten and below.

Mini Competition Team

These dancers meet once a week for an hour & 15 min and compete with three dances at competition. Last Year's Mini Team consisted of 5 dancers between the ages of 6 and 9 years old. The new team will be competing in both Lyrical, tap, and jazz or Hip Hop category at Competition in the spring.

Junior Competition Team

These dancers meet once a week for an hour and a half and compete in Lyrical, Tap, and Jazz. Last Year's Team consisted of 7 dancers on the junior competition team all of middle school age.
